

Job Title: Research Fellowship, Huron Community History Centre

Start Date: May 6 2019

End Date: September 6, 2019

Direct Supervisors: Amy Bell, Nina Reid-Maroney

Rate of pay: $15/hr (up to 380 hours)

Job Overview

The successful candidate will join the SSHRC-funded project, Finding Christ Church: Social Justice in History, Memory, and Contemporary Practice, 1819-2019, a collaboration among Huron's Community History Centre, the Centre for Public Theology at Huron, and the people of Christ Church, Chatham.

Duties will include:

- archival research
- building an accessible digital archive of research material (training provided)
- liaising with the local community
- assisting with the organizing of public events, including a "Living Library" event on June 1, and planning the project conference
- updating the project's social media accounts
- miscellaneous duties as required

Preferred Qualifications

Education:

* Must be registered at Huron University College as an undergraduate or professional degree student in a minimum 60% course load (40% course load for students with disabilities).

* Previous studies in History, or completion of HIST2811F/G and HIST3801E, or some equivalent combination of coursework, would be a distinct asset

Skills, Abilities & Expertise:

- An ideal candidate for this position will have experience in website development (wordpress or omeka), and an interest in public theology and/or public history

Please forward a letter of interest, a resume, and the name of one academic and/or professional reference to:

Dr. Nina Reid-Maroney nreidmar@huron.uwo.ca

Dr. Amy Bell abell44@huron.uwo.ca

Applications are due March 1, 2019