

Letterpress Assistant

Start Date: 6 September 2021

End Date: 15 April 2022

Compensation: $15/hr for up to 100 hours ($1,500)

Deadline for Submissions: 1 May 2021

This 100-hour position involves supporting the work of Huron's Letterpress Studio. Working alongside the Letterpress committee, the assistant will be responsible for supervising student use of the studio when faculty are unavailable as well as ensuring that all equipment is kept clean and put properly away. This is a new position and a new program at Huron. The specific details of this position will be developed collaboratively with the Letterpress committee once the student begins the position.

The Huron Letterpress Studio is a teaching space designed to support Huron's book history program. The successful candidate will have a strong academic record, with well-developed written and verbal communication skills. Preference will be given to students enrolled in Huron's English & Cultural Studies, Global Great Books, and History programs. Past experience with Letterpress or graphic design, as well as holding positions of responsibility, is considered an asset.

To apply for this position please submit by 1 May 2021 a one-page cover letter with a C.V. and copy of your unofficial transcript.

For more information or to submit application materials please contact Profs. Nina Reid-Maroney or Thomas Peace at nreidmar@huron.uwo.ca and tpeace@huron.uwo.ca.