

Community History Research Fellowships

2 positions available

Start Date: 6 May 2024

End Date: 1 September 2024

Compensation: $17/hr for up to 60 hours

Deadline for Submissions: 29 March 2024

The Huron Community History Centre supports local communities and organizations in producing their own histories, and historical resources, by providing access to faculty, student and university resources, in addition to supporting the History department's community-based research programs, and commitment to collaborative undergraduate research learning.

This position involves working with Dr. Reid-Maroney and Dr. Peace on one of two community history projects.

Project 1: Working with our community partners will research and develop a tour of downtown London, identifying stories and histories of importance and packaging them in a way that will be of interest to the general public.

Project 2: Working with a community partner, this fellow will help research and organize archives related to Huron's mid-twentieth century history.

For the most part, the successful candidate will work remotely with the Huron Community History Centre, but some on-campus training and participation in the annual Buxton History and Genealogy Conference on August 30 will be required.

To apply for this position please submit by 29 March a one-page cover letter with a C.V. and copy of your unofficial transcript.

For more information or to submit application materials please contact Profs. Nina Reid-Maroney or Thomas Peace at nreidmar@huron.uwo.ca and tpeace@huron.uwo.ca.
