

Community History Research Fellowship

Start Date: 6 May 2024

End Date: 1 September 2024

Compensation: $17/hr for up to 120 hours

Deadline for Submissions: 12 April 2024

The Huron Community History Centre supports local communities and organizations in producing their own histories, and historical resources, by providing access to faculty, student and university resources, in addition to supporting the History department's community-based research programs, and commitment to collaborative undergraduate research learning.

This position involves working with Dr. Compeau and Dr. Reid-Maroney on a community-based partnership mapping Black abolitionist community in 19thc Chatham-Kent. Preferred qualifications include Huron History coursework in Public History, and experience and interest in Arc-GIS. For the most part, the successful candidate will work remotely with the Huron Community History Centre, but some on-campus training and local travel in southwestern Ontario will be required.

To apply for this position please submit by April 12 a one-page cover letter with a C.V. and copy of your unofficial transcript.

For more information or to submit application materials please contact Profs. Nina Reid-Maroney or Tim Compeau at nreidmar@huron.uwo.ca and tcompea@uwo.ca
