

Investigate Race Charges In Dresden

TORONTO (CP) — A hearing of charges that racial discrimination occurred recently in Dresden will be heard at Dresden Arena, September 27, at 2 p.m., Judge William Schwinger of Hamilton said today.

Judge Schwinger has been named a one-man commission to investigate complaints that Negroes were refused service in a Dresden restaurant, in contravention of Ontario's Fair Accommodation Practices Act.

After hearing evidence, the judge will make recommendations to Labor Minister Daley of Ontario.
