

DRESDEN

Continued From Page One

ed the blow, and as she struck again, seized the broom. The door was slammed on them, and Mr. Noland pulled the broom out with him.

As they stood on the street, Mr. Talbot testified, a police officer approached and asked if they had been having trouble.

Later, as they walked back to the church, the same officer picked them up, and took them to the police station. There, witness said their names and addresses were taken.

Louis Hall, of Windsor, corroborated the evidence of Mr. Talbot. Mr. Noland was not present at the hearing.

EMERSON TESTIFIES

Matthew Emerson testified that the three men entered his restaurant after 10 p. m. closing time while he was counting the cash at the front of the store. Only two lights were on, he said; his wife and Elaine McFadden, a waitress were sweeping up. The men asked plaints.

BOY MISSING

Mrs. R. G. Moore of 158 Gray St. told police yesterday that her 10-year-old son, Bobby, was missing from home. She said he is five feet tall, and was wearing a red shirt and blue pants. Sgt. Don Mahon is investigating.

Wanted to buy—Murphy Bed in good condition. Phone 4482M after 6 p.m. t.f.

for coffee, he said, and were told the place was closed. Emerson said he repeated three times his request to leave and finally two of the men left.

As the third man was in the door, Mr. Emerson tried to close the door, striking the man's foot, witness said. The man grabbed her by both arms and threw her against a show case. This action was repeated three times. Mr. Emerson said, during the time he was trying to call police. Finally, Mrs. Emerson put her broom up for protection; the man grabbed the end of it, and when she let go suddenly, stumbled through the door.

Mr. Emerson admitted, when questioned by Mr. Davis, that he