we may lose these people. We can only kill Communism by making democracy so good it will appeal to these people."

You don't kill ideas with a gun. You kill them with better ideas," he concluded. "That's the job that lies ahead."

Mr. Turner was introduced by Sid Bloom of the joint labor committee, Toronto. Master of ceremonies for the evening was A. H. Alexander, of North Buxton. Guests included Jaycee Sam Lee and Leon Kahane, spiritual leader of the Jewish Community.
