

HISTORY AT HURON

Our classes emphasize the living connections between historical study and current global debates. Studying History at Huron cultivates empathy, brings precision and energy to your writing, connects you to professional networks, and prepares you for engaged citizenship in a world rocked by questions about truth, evidence, and the nature of human understanding.

HONORS SPECIALIZATION IN HISTORY

Complete a full first year of study (including a minimum average of 70% in 3.0 principal courses) and 9.0 more History courses.

SPECIALIZATION IN HISTORY

Complete a full first year of study (including a minimum average of 60% in 3.0 principal courses) and 9.0 more History courses.

MAJOR IN HISTORY

Complete a full first year of study (including a minimum average of 60% in 3.0 principal courses) and 6.0 more History courses.

MINOR IN HISTORY

Complete a full first year of study (including a minimum average of 60% in 3.0 principal courses) and 4.0 more History courses.

2019-2020 COURSES

1801E	Blood, Sweat, and Gold: Controversies in Global History
1815F	Histories of Love
1816G	Histories of Violence
2125F	Northern Enterprise: Canadian Business and Labour History
2127G	In Search of Canada: Postwar to Present
2204G	Crises and Confederation
2302G	American Modern
2413E	Europe and the Paradoxes of Modernity
2610F	Women in East Asia
2709F	Race, Rights, and Revolution: The Atlantic World in the 18th Century
2710F	Red, White, Black et Blancs: Early North America
2713F	Republic of Letters: Enlightenment in the Atlantic World
2712G	Tyrants: Historical Profiles in Oppression and Resistance
2813G	Making Waves: Women's Activism in the Atlantic World
3410G	The British Empire: Sex, Books, and Violence
3706E	Political Assassinations, 1900-2000
3801E	The Historian's Craft
4605E	War and Memory in East Asia
4810F	Active History
4204G	Confronting Colonialism: Land, Literacies, and Learning

OUR NEW MINORS

JOINT MINOR IN PUBLIC HISTORY

Huron's joint minor in Public History is the first undergraduate Public History program in Canada. You can combine the module with a History degree, or with other disciplines such as Archaeology, Classics, Geography, Visual Art, and Media, Information and Technoculture. The module will introduce you to Public History, and provide practical experience in the field.

HISTORIES OF AFRICA AND AFRICAN DIASPORAS

This module combines core History courses with choices in Political Science, English, Geography, Religious Studies, and Women's Studies, introducing complex histories of Africa and the African Diaspora as well as the legacies of those histories in our own time.

PACIFIC RIM STUDIES

This module offers interdisciplinary and cross-regional of East Asia and North America, focusing on the common, comparative, and interactive aspects of the lives of the peoples in the Pacific Rim region, and including courses in History, Chinese, Japanese, English, and Political Science. The Pacific Rim Studies Minor will introduce a diversity of approaches, primary sources and intellectual traditions in this dynamic and transnational research area.

WORLD HISTORY

The World History Minor focuses on the common, comparative, and interactive aspects of World History, with three credits in History and one credit chosen from English, Global Studies, Political Science, Philosophy, Film Studies, First Nations Studies, Religious Studies or French and Asian studies.

